11. Evaluation And Assessment Methods, minimum Standards / Credits for award of degree.

(1) Submission of Thesis for evaluation:

(i) Upon satisfactory completion of course work by earning 12 credits, and after spending minimum period of two years from the date of admission, the Ph.D. Scholar may produce draft dissertation / thesis to the RAC of the concerned Department / College where the Ph.D. Scholar is pursuing Ph.D. degree for its presentation and for finalization of the Dissertation / Thesis in APPENDIX-16. Such presentation shall also be open to all faculty members and other Research Scholars / Post Graduate Students.

(ii) The Ph.D. Scholar shall have to submit Certificate of Plagiarism in there search work along with the draft dissertation / thesis. (Strict enforcement of UGC's plagiarism threshold: 15% similarity overall; 10% from a single source.)

Provided that in exceptional cases minimum period of two years for submission of thesis may be reduced to one and half year by the Pro Vice-Chancellor based on concrete recommendations and due justification by RAC.

(iii) After the finalization of thesis by the RAC, Ph.D. Scholar shall have to submit four hard copies of the thesis for evaluation through the School/Department/College to the university along with following documents-

- a) An undertaking in FORM-5 from the Ph.D. Scholar that there is no plagiarism.
- b) A certificate from the Research Supervisor attesting to the originality of the thesis and that the thesis has not been submitted for the award of any other degree/discipline to any other University in FORM-6.
- c) Evaluation report on the thesis by his/her Research Supervisor in sealed envelope as per Appendix-5.
- d) The copy of the synopsis approved by RRC.
- e) Summary of the thesis not exceeding five pages.

- f) Soft copy of the thesis and Summary to be retained with Research Supervisor of the Ph.D. Scholar. Research Supervisor shall have to preserve this copy with him/her and should be made available to the university as and when demanded by the university.

(iv) On receipt of the thesis along with requisite documents mentioned in Para-11 (1) (iii) (a) to (d), the University shall proceed for appointment of two external examiners in the manner as stated below.

(2) Appointment of external examiners:

- i. For appointment of two external examiners for evaluation of the thesis, RRC of the university should prepare a panel of ten external examiners (two panels of five external examiners) not below the rank of Associate Professor/Equivalent Grade. Such examiner(s) should be an academician with a good record of scholarly publications in the relevant field discipline with their full address, pin code, e-mail, telephone/cell number, fax number (if any). The RRC shall recommend two panels of five external examiners each. First panel shall include the external examiners from within Maharashtra State (not belonging to the jurisdiction of this University and not associated with the University) and the other panel from outside the State or out of India wherever possible.

Provided that if language of thesis is vernacular and external examiners from out of the State are not available, the panel of external examiners shall be recommended from within the State. (Out of the University Jurisdiction and not associated with the University).

- ii. The panel of external examiners, recommended by the Research and Recognition Committee, shall be placed before the Vice-Chancellor. The Vice-Chancellor shall draw lot of the names of two external examiners, one from each panel of five external examiners.
- iii. The University shall initiate the process of thesis evaluation by sending the letters along with the copy of the summary of the thesis to the external examiners. For this the external examiners shall be communicated through official e-mail and also by surface mail within one week from the date of approval of two external examiners, requesting them to communicate their consent for evaluation of thesis within fifteen days. In addition, the University shall take care to remind the external examiners telephonically.
- iv. If such consent is not received within thirty days from the date of communication, the university shall send the letter for consent to the next external examiner from the panel on approval of Vice-Chancellor as per para (ii). In case, the complete panel is exhausted, the fresh panel shall be requested from the RRC.
- v. On receipt of the consent from the external examiner, the University shall forward the copy of thesis within one week. This may be the soft or hard copy as per the choice of the examiner. Further the external examiner shall be requested to submit the evaluation report in the prescribed format Appendix-6 along with the detailed report with the queries/comments (if any) within forty-five (45) days.
- vi. If the report of external examiner is not received within the stipulated period, the University shall send a reminder to the external examiner through e-mail/telephonically to submit the report within next fifteen (15) days. If there is no response from the external examiner even within the extended period, appointment of external examiner shall deem to be cancelled and the University shall appoint the next external examiner from the panel.

After receipt of the reports of both external examiner on thesis:

- i. If both the external examiners have recommended acceptance of the thesis, the thesis shall be treated as accepted.
- ii. If both the external examiners have recommended rejection of the thesis, the scholar shall not be eligible for the award of Ph.D. Degree. However, he/she may be allowed to proceed the research work in the light of comments made by both external examiners and shall submit revised thesis within one year to the university by following the stipulated procedure of this Direction for submission of thesis and same procedure of evaluation is applicable in such case.
- iii. If both the external examiners recommend the revision of thesis, then scholar shall submit the revised thesis incorporating the suggestions made by both the external examiners, in three copies within six months. The revised copies of thesis then shall be sent to the external examiners along with their suggestions. After revision if both the external examiners recommend acceptance/rejection, the thesis will be treated as accepted/rejected.

- iv. If one external examiner recommends acceptance and the other recommends rejection, then a third external examiner shall be appointed from amongst the approved panel at office level. In such case the decision of the third external examiner shall be final.
- v. If one external examiner recommends acceptance and the other recommends revision then scholar shall submit the revised thesis in three copies within six months. The revised copy of thesis then shall be sent to the same external examiner who has suggested revision and whose decision shall be final.
- vi. If one external examiner recommends revision and other recommends rejection even after revision, then thesis will be treated as rejected and Ph. D. Scholar may proceed as per procedure as mentioned in para (ii) above.
- vii. If the thesis has been accepted under the conditions mentioned above, the scholar shall be eligible for open defense and the process for the same shall be initiated within fifteen days. The entire process of evaluation of Ph.D. thesis shall be completed within a period of six months from the date of submission of the thesis.
