Date of the Activity	13 Sept. 2019
Participate Count	Villagers - 220 & NSS Volunteers and Health Watch Committee
Place	Galava, Mal- Mhasola, Madakona
Organized By	NSS Department and Agriculture department
Objective	To create awareness among farmers and farm laborers to prevent loss of life due to pesticides with the help of Agriculture department

Brief Report

An initiative was launched under the National Service Scheme Department regarding poisoning, care and measures during internal spraying. Accordingly, the program was inaugurated in the college on 13 September 2019. Zilla Parishad Agriculture Officer Shri. Pankaj Barde, B.A.S.F. Divisional Officer Shri. Devanand Jadhav, Anil Deshmukh as Chief Guest and Mrs Swati Ugemuge, Principal of the college were present as President.

On the occasion of the program, Zilla Parishad Agriculture Officer Mr. Pankaj Barde said that chemicals should be taken only after contacting the agriculture department. Spray drugs should be taken from the official shop only, choosing the type of insect or worm from which crop. Take special care while handling medicines. As activities under agriculture sector are always beneficial for the farmers, social work students can work with the villagers. Therefore, the college appreciated the work done. After this program, public awareness program was conducted in Galwa, Mal-Masola, Madkona regarding poisoning, care and measures while spraying and spraying kits were distributed

Outcome	To create public awareness among about 220 farmers and farm laborers through the street plays presented by student to prevent the harmful effects of pesticides with the help of the Agriculture Department.

On the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti, organized by District Administration and Collector Office Yavatmal, Nagar Parishad Yavatmal under Swachhta Hi Seva Abhiyan. On 2nd October 2019 the program "Good bye to Plastic" was organized. In this event, the team of the National Service Scheme from Mahatma Jyotiba Phule College of Social Work, Yavatmal presented a beautiful street play on "Plastic elimination". In which the production of plastic and the adverse effects of plastic on human life, animals and nature were created through different aspects of street theatre.

Outcome

The college's students actively engaged in environmental-related activities, recognized the importance of protecting the environment, and were aware of their duties in doing so, including using street play as a means of interaction with others.
